Lunar New year Celebrations!

Lac Viet and Van Lang Co-ops (Vietnamese Seniors Co-op) recently celebrated the Lunar New Year.

They enjoyed many traditional activities such as the lucky dip which means luck/winning for next year. Cutting of the watermelon: if the watermelon is bright red, this brings good fortune for the year.

A. CELEBRATION TIME!

B. LUCKY DIP

C. SPECIAL YELLOW FLOWERS CALLED "HOA MAI" AND LUCKY MONEY BAGS

NSW Water Restrictions – REMINDER

- You can only use a watering can or bucket to water your garden before 10am and after 4pm.
- You can only use drip irrigation or smart watering systems for a maximum of 15 mins a day per watering zone, before 10am and after 4pm.
- You can only top up an existing pool or spa, using a hose fitted with a trigger nozzle, watering can or bucket for a maximum of 15 minutes a day. You can only do this to replace water lost through evaporation, not to replace water deliberately removed from the pool or spa.
- You can only wash your vehicles with a bucket and sponge — not with a hose.

CENSW STAFF UPDATE

We have two staff members who have changed roles within the organisation:

- ★ Nicole Stevens – now in the new position of Communications Officer – previously with the Co-operative Development Team.
- ★ Poppy Whiting – previously on a short contract as Operations Manager – has successfully applied for the role of Senior Projects Manager (which Gina O’Neill left in December last year to relocate with her family to Singapore).
- ★ Michelle Bogatyrov – Co-op Development Officer – has recently left the organisation and we will be looking to recruit her replacement in the near future.
